Welcome to Alleghany County

Alleghany County is nestled among the peaks of the Blue Ridge Mountains and is easily accessible via US Highway 21 and NC highway 18. Many say it is “easy to get here... but hard to leave”. We agree.

In the Heart of the Blue Ridge Parkway, you will find unspoiled views, pristine nature, and quiet solitude—a place where life is still simple, and the air is clean. Explore the Blue Ridge Parkway with access to national, state, and local parks. Enjoy the scenic New River, and spend the afternoon in beautiful downtown Sparta.

While strolling on Main Street, enjoy our quaint shops, art and craft galleries, and restaurants, join friends in the local brewery or venture out to experience the family-owned winery.

Alleghany has some of the most beautiful rural land in North Carolina. Take a drive and visit Ennice, Glade Valley, Laurel Springs, Roaring Gap, Piney Creek, find country stores and cafes, discover our breathtaking views, farms, and gain an understanding of why we call Alleghany “home”.

Discover nearby hiking trails, and the opportunity to fish, canoe, kayak or enjoy an all-day lazy float on the New River. Pitch a tent

Culture & Heritage

The mountains of Allegheny County ring with the sounds of the fiddle, guitar, string bands, and cloggers that can be heard everywhere, from front porches to festival stages and town sidewalks. Traditional mountain music includes lively bluegrass tunes, folk singing, and sacred music.

Kicking off the season on the first weekend in May, the mouth-watering N.C. Fried Apple Pie Festival makes its annual visit to the Allegheny Fairgrounds. The only one of its kind in North Carolina, this new but popular festival offers craft vendors, competitions, food, and entertainment.

In early June, the Allegheny Arts Council begins its summer series, Music on Main, which is held on the first Saturday of the month in the streets of downtown Sparta, June through September. This is an excellent and free evening of musical enjoyment. The Allegheny Arts Council is dedicated to building community enrichment and passion for the arts and hosts events throughout the summer. For more information, go to alleghenyartscouncil.org in June. This area of northwest North Carolina is deeply steeped in the tradition of the fiber arts. Fiber Fest offers classes, competitions, and vendors showcasing weaving, spinning, felting, animals, and more. Visit blueridgefiberfest.com for more information.

As the temperatures start cooling down, it is time for the annual Mountain Heritage Festival. Held annually on the third weekend of September on Main Street in downtown Sparta, this well-known and well-attended event has brought artists and crafters together to offer handmade, unique goods. The festival is complemented by local and regional musicians, food vendors, and other local exhibits. This event creates a diverse experience in celebration of our local heritage.

Throughout the summer and fall, you will fall in love with the small-town charm of Sparta and Allegheny County as we dive into a season of weekly activities, festivals, parades, mud slings, art fairs, concerts, a demolition derby, music festivals, and more!

Get Outside & Enjoy!

Alleghany County, located in the heart of the Blue Ridge Mountains, offers some of the most beautiful scenery in the world and a treasure trove of peaceful trails where you can soak up the splendor. If it is challenging outdoor events you like, you will find those as well.

WALKING TRAILS

Crouse Park at 60 Cherry Street in Sparta has a 1/3 mile asphalt loop with a few slight hills.

Veterans Memorial Park in Sparta features a level 1/3 mile level loop with a crushed gravel surface. Parking for the Veterans Memorial Park is at 254 Duncan Street.

HIKING TRAILS

The Mountains-to-Sea Trail runs 1,175 miles across North Carolina – with 13 of those miles passing through Alleghany County along the Blue Ridge Parkway with numerous access points. The surface is natural through woods and fields, and the trail is mostly easy or moderate.

Doughton Park on the Blue Ridge Parkway has 30 miles of trails ranging from leisurely strolls to strenuous hikes descending and ascending the Blue Ridge's escarpment. Elevation changes can be up to 2,000 feet. Allow plenty of time for hikes up and down the mountain.

Stone Mountain State Park has hikes to its two granite domes and several other wooded trails, including 5 miles open to horseback riders. This gorgeous park includes a 19th-century home-stead, a 200-foot waterfall, trout streams, and many picnic areas.

The New River State Park has five sites along the 26-mile designated Wild and Scenic River section of the New River. The Alleghany Access (canoe-in only) in Piney Creek has two moderate one-mile trails and an easy half-mile trail.

GUIDED HIKES

The Alleghany Sparta Trail Association has group hikes on different trails each month. For information, email spartatrails@gmail.com. See Alleghany Sparta Trail Association/ASTA on Facebook for places and any changes due to weather.

The New River

The northwestern corner of North Carolina is New River country. Here, the north and south forks of the New River join just a few miles south of the North Carolina-Virginia line.

The New River is believed to be one of the oldest rivers in North America and the second oldest river in the world. It existed before the mountains through which it flows, and for millions of years, its waters have followed essentially the same course—many stretches of the New flow through the remote countryside not easily accessible by road or trail. The designated scenic segment of the river, 26.5 miles in length, includes 22 miles of the South Fork downstream to its confluence with the North Fork and 4.5 miles of the main stem of the river north to the Virginia line.

The New River was named a National Wild and Scenic River in 1976, and it winds through some of the best North Carolina mountain scenery.

New River State Park is a base camp for exploration of this river at two principal spots—Wagoner Road access and US 221 access. Both offer walk-in camping and paddling access. RV camping is available at U.S. 221 river access.

Fishing

Cast your line and reel in tonight's dinner. The south and north forks of the river provide some of the region's best smallmouth and redeye bass fishing. The south fork downstream from the US 221 bridge is stocked with Muskie. Trout fishing is excellent in the smaller, faster tributaries, most of which are designated general trout waters and are stocked regularly with rainbow and brown trout. Rockfish also migrate up the New River in the spring behind the shad. Anglers need a state fishing license and must obey the regulations of the NC Wildlife Resources Commission.

Your New River experience

Dusty Trails Outfitters can accommodate your canoeing, kayaking, tubing, camping, and fishing needs, and much more! It is located in Alleghany and Ashe Counties, NC, just a short drive from Sparta. Open April through October. Reservations or call ahead are strongly recommended.

Alleghany's Commitment to Education

The mission of the Alleghany County Schools is to create a safe, collaborative, and inspirational learning community. Our public schools consistently meet or exceed state testing requirements. We understand the responsibility of educators to prepare students for the demands of the modern, digital, and wireless world. Therefore, our schools are using technology to support student motivation, learning, and development of skills.

Our Career and Technical Education (CTE) program provides students with opportunities for careers and college transfers. Starting from middle grades, we offer Career Awareness, Readiness, and Technology Education classes which continue through graduation. Our CTE classes offer hands-on learning experiences in fields such as Business, Family and Consumer Science, Technology Education, Health Education, Agriculture, Construction, Trades, and more.

We have a close partnership with Wilkes Community College, that allows qualifying high school students to take courses at the Alleghany Center. This partnership helps them jump-start their journey to college, technical certification, or related degrees. Wilkes Community College's strategic plan focuses on empowering more citizens with credentials that meet the employer's needs for a skilled workforce. It also aims to put students on career tracks that offer growth opportunities and family-sustaining incomes.

Lastly, the Alleghany Educational Foundation is committed to providing scholarship opportunities to every Alleghany student after high school. Since 2002, the Foundation has distributed well over $2 million to deserving high school seniors. They raise funds through charitable donations to invest in the children of Alleghany and to ensure a better future for the mountain region. For more information, please visit alleghanyedfoundation.org.

Alleghany Health

Alleghany County's medical community offers healthcare that is more typical of an urban area. With its critical-access hospital that provides emergency, primary, and transitional care, along with multiple providers of primary care, wellness, home health, dental, urgent, chiropractic, specialty clinics, EMS, Senior Care, and Skilled Nursing, our medical providers are ready when you or your loved ones need medical attention. Our hospital provides regional emergency and inpatient care with transfers to tertiary medical centers if required. The hospital is a tremendous asset to our community, and while many rural community hospitals are threatened with closure, ours is more viable than ever.

Our clinics offer a growing list of services, including family and internal medicine, pediatrics, and physical and respiratory therapy. Specialty clinics include cardiology, general surgery, orthopedics, urology, podiatry, hematology-oncology, pulmonary and ear, nose, and throat.

Our vibrant medical community allows patients to save time and travel to and from large cities. There is a well-developed County EMS system, and emergency helicopter transport is available. In the event of a heart attack or stroke, complex trauma, rapid diagnosis, and transport saves lives and function.

You can feel safe knowing that Alleghany County – cares.

Helpful Hint

Milepost numbers increase as you travel southwest on the Parkway toward Great Smoky Mountains National Park. If the numbers are decreasing, you are headed northeast toward Shenandoah Nat. Park.

ALLEGHANY COUNTY

Heart of the Blue Ridge Parkway

For more than 85 years, the Parkway has been a part of the daily lives of residents of Alleghany County and Sparta, NC. Today, Sparta is a bustling small town and the hub of this rural community. It is surrounded by the Alleghany countryside, much of it still in pasture, fields, Christmas tree and pumpkin farms, and woodland that reflect the same scenic beauty for which the Parkway is so well known.

Enjoy the Drive

Milepost 217.5: Cumberland Knob - Here the mixture of lush woodlands and open fields, housing a variety of birds and other wildlife, is ideal for leisurely walks or a more demanding hike to nearby Gully Creek. Enjoy a packed snack or lunch at a picnic area.

Milepost 218.6: Fox Hunters Paradise - The crest of High Piney Spur seen from this overlook is well known by people in the area. There are picnic tables and a relaxing 0.2-mile trail to a beautiful view of the countryside.

Milepost 230: Little Glade Mill Pond and Trail - The scenery at this overlook is spectacular. The calm pond draws the reflection of the colorful trees. This is a wonderful place for a picnic and there is a 0.4-mile loop trail around the pond.

Milepost 232.5-236.9 Overlooks:

Stone Mountain. The view into the rolling foothills is inspiring. In the distance stands a large domed-shaped mountain of white granite rock, which is Stone Mountain.

Bullhead Overlook. The slopes of the mountains from this overlook lead your eyes down into the mountain ranges below. Bull Head Mountain's profile is unique among the other mountains in the area.

Mahogany Rock. This overlook offers a view of the rolling land of Virginia to the right and the distinctive mountainous land of North Carolina to the left.

Devils Garden. There is a narrow view down into the lowlands due to the mountainous slopes on each side of the overlook.

Air Bellows. This beautiful vista is designated as the Crest of the Blue Ridge. Air Bellows gets its name from the strong winds that travel through the area, especially during winter.

Mileposts 238.5-241: Brinegar Cabin and Doughton Park

Brinegar cabin was built around 1880 and is an authentic mountain home where visitors may experience craft demonstrations and a glimpse of mountain life.

Doughton Park has open meadows, wildlife, historic locations, and colorful flowers in late spring. Diverse hiking options make Doughton Park a must-experience destination. It has one of the Parkway's larger campgrounds, a popular picnic area and more than 30 miles of hiking trails that access forested slopes, streams, and backcountry in Basin Cove. The Cove is popular for fly-fishing, horseback riding and camping. Also visit the nearby Northwest Trading Post or enjoy a meal at the historic Bluffs Restaurant – open seasonally.

GOLF | TENNIS | PICKLEBALL | DINING | POOL | FITNESS | SOCIAL EVENTS

Tucked away in the mountains of North Carolina lies a private Golf and Country Club like no other. With breath-taking scenic views, golf enthusiasts up and down the east coast love this George Cobb designed course. After playing a round, enjoy fine dining and fellowship with members of our community. Whether you make High Meadows your permanent home, your summer home, or simply your weekend escape, you'll fall in love with our small-town-America charm and hospitality.

High Meadows is a private club, but even more than that, it's a community. Here, members become lifelong friends, golfing buddies, tennis and pickleball partners, and more. This close-knit camaraderie is something the club is careful to cultivate and preserve, much like the beautiful natural setting itself. All families have different dreams and desires for their club, so we offer a variety of memberships to help fit your family's needs.
